January 1993

Greetings from Washington Texas Maine America!

It's been fun... Stay in touch!

George Bush

Barbara Bush

Report to the Listener

Valerie van Isler, General Manager

"It's time for a change...it's time for a new beginning."

After more than a decade of Republican retro-politics, this nation will have a new Democratic Administration in the White House this month. WBAI will begin the new year by providing the most informed, probing and insightful coverage of the Clinton/Gore Inauguration. We'll also investigate the state of the nation, international developments, the global economy, and the prospects for peace in 1993.

The WBAI Winter Membership Drive starts on January 13 and, for the entire month, you will hear some of the most exciting programming in any media on this community station, including:

* Examining the New National Team—What Must Be Done and What Will They Do? WBAI's Special Report on Inauguration Day;
* The Fall and Rise of Fascism in Europe—Why Now? and What Next?
* Flashpoint in the Gulf—The Aftermath of the Iraq War;
* A Decade of Death: New Views and Information About the Kennedy, King, Malcolm, and Kennedy Assassinations;
* Unfolding the Stone: Making and Unmaking the History of Language;
* Eternal Vigilance: Women in the Struggle for Reproductive Freedom;
* Arts and Music specials;
* A Day of Natural Living with Gary Null;
* and a special presentation of the memorial service for poet Audre Lorde.

The Pacifica mission and WBAI's mandate is to inform, educate, illuminate, and even inspire. That's a great responsibility and challenge which we must face every day. The only way that we can accomplish this is through the commitment and financial support of our audience. That philosophy has guided us for more than 33 years, and today it means that keeping WBAI on the air requires nearly $2 million dollars in member-support each year.

This too, is an extraordinary challenge. Our January 1993 Membership Drive is especially important if we are to not only report on the times, but stay ahead of them on the issues which affect us all. Your response to many of our new programs, in particular our new Morning Show with Amy Goodman, Bernard White, and Jose Santiago, has been overwhelmingly positive. All of these broadcasts can only continue if--if we have the resources to do it. This kind of programming excellence depends entirely on you for its very survival. The time is now. We have to make some critical decisions very soon. Your generous support during our January Drive will help keep these and other programs alive and on the air. More than ever, you as a member of WBAI are the key to our present survival and our hopes for the future. In this "time of new beginnings," we at WBAI extend our best wishes to you for a new year dedicated to peace between and among all peoples and all nations around the world. May peace prevail on Earth.

We at WBAI extend our sympathies to the family and friends of Allan Ross
co-producer of The Gay Show.
Allan passed away on December 21, 1992 due to burns received in a fire.

David Thomas at The Knitting Factory

(with Garo Yellin and Ira Kaplan)
January 9th @ 7:30PM

Musical genius, avant-garde legend, lyricist, and singer-songwriter David Thomas "grew to musical manhood" as "part of the urban pioneer movement of the '70s in the isolation and utter desolation of the inner-city."

David Thomas's massively influential works span two decades: from his first band, Rocket from the Tombs, in 1973 to the instigation of Pere Ubu in 1975, through his solo projects—David Thomas & The Pedestrians, David Thomas & His Legs, David Thomas & The Wooden Birds—to the successful reformation of Pere Ubu in 1987. David's music roams an emotionally visual landscape, striving to express "a heart to heart sort of a beyond, that which is beyond words."

It's been five years since David Thomas has performed solo stateside. Here are rare performances recorded October 16 and 17, 1992 at The Knitting Factory in New York City, which include infrequently and never-before performed in concert renditions of his music. Re-arranged by David for a cappella, vocal, accordion, cello and guitar; David Thomas with vocal and accordion; Garo Yellin, formerly of The Wooden Birds, on cello; and Ira Kaplan of Yo La Tengo on acoustic and electric guitars. Engineered by Natalie Budelis, Michael DeMark, and David Vanderheyden. Produced by Natalie Budelis.

So curl 'round your radio, preferably in the fetal position...and "visionate"!

Tonight, T.R. Pearson reads from his novel, Cry Me a River, and talks about murder and humor in the rural South.

Discover why supply sergeants are the lowest form of life in the known universe! Hear about food that constipates you for a full week! In a religious business segment, Pope Weaselpenis XVI interviews a pair of entrepreneurs who have bought the grave site of the late Ayatollah Khomeini and have turned it into the most popular pay toilet in any desert. Hector & Anvil provide a video essay on the newest no-tech gonad pumping scheme: the psychic sex line. You don't need a phone, you don't need a credit card, all you need are hyperactive hormones, telepathic abilities and some disposable karma. At last! A way to spend that good karma you've been uselessly building up for all of these lifetimes! Free Form Live Radio by R. Paul Martin (who has been passing his seed through the fire to Molech for a long time.)
